Together, we will defeat this virus.

Today, a Turkish military plane landed at Joint Base Andrews to deliver medical equipment from the Turkish government to the U.S. to help our NATO ally combat #COVID19.

Ambassador Serdar Kılıç delivered the Turkish medical supplies containing surgical masks, hazmat suits, goggles, N95 masks and face shields to U.S. State Department's Bureau of European and Eurasian Affairs Acting Assistant Secretary Philip T. Reeker, as well as a letter from President Erdoğan to President Trump. Turkey stands in solidarity with the U.S. in the fight against coronavirus.

Today is National Sovereignty and Children’s Day in Turkey— a national holiday during which we celebrate the foundation of the #Turkish Grand National Assembly, as well as the children’s day!

100 years ago, on April 23, 1920, the Turkish Grand National Assembly was inaugurated in #Ankara, a decisive moment in our nation’s history that ultimately led to the foundation of the Republic of #Turkey in 1923.

The founder of the Republic of Turkey, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, dedicated ‘April 23’ to #children all over the world, to underscore the important role they play in our future. Happy #ChildrensDay!

Do you know where Santa Claus is originally from? The historical town of Demre, located on Turkey's southern shore, once called Myra, was the hometown of Saint Nicholas. Saint Nicholas, also known as Santa Claus, was the Bishop of Myra. Today, travelers can experience the spirit of Christmas by visiting the town's ancient ruins, which consist of a magnificent amphitheater and ancient rock tombs that were built into the mountainside, as well as Saint Nicholas Church!
